

Global Missions

Our next distribution to our missional families goes out at the end of May. Those who wish to add to the church allocation for a specified family or to give generally (which means the money will be evenly split between the missionaries), please place your gift in the offering in a nominated envelope as soon as possible. Please continue to pray for our missionaries, this is the greatest gift for them.

Onga Project Fundraising Auction and Dinner

Your Global Missions team is seeking donations of quality, desirable goods for the auction that is part of our World Vision Onga Project fundraiser. Do you have a service you could gift? Could you simply donate a quality good/s? We are seeking about 20 quality items for the Onga project auction. Please contact Marilyn Mundy on 027 665 2555 if you are able to help this worthy project.

Martin Macaulay
Senior Pastor

Thank you to all those people who helped and prayed for our Ministry Conference again this year. 120 leaders from churches and ministries gathered for some of the most outstanding times of worship and input we have ever had. Many churches brought teams of people. It was life-giving, encouraging, enlightening and inspiring. Our keynote speaker David Crawley was both profound and practical, deep and accessible. All these churches have been encouraged in pursuing God's will together. Conference also addressed the spiritual practices needed to shape us as leaders who can discern God's will together. We have sought to grow in such practices over the years here too. Silence and solitude, prayer and engaging the scriptures, growing in self-knowledge and reflection, and doing life together. Think of the spiritual practices we followed during our Pursuing God's Will series in 2017. You can refer back to them and other practices on the Resources – Study Guides section of our website. I am encouraged to continue asking you, "What are you reading in the Bible at the moment?" and "Do you have a plan?" As part of that and a recent sermon, one ET person emailed me: Hi Martin, I just wanted to feedback to you how great your suggestion was to use the Bible in a year app. It's fantastic and I look forward to doing it to learn more and to praise God. It is never a chore and I thank you for the suggestion. I will thoroughly recommend it to others. See www.bibleinoneyear.org Martin.

Baptisms at ET: Sunday 26 May

Alysha Gibbs:

I want to get baptised because I have reached a point in my journey of faith that I would like to declare to the world and God, in front of the most important people to me, that Jesus is my savior and this is who I am. I want God to know he has me whole heartedly and that I believe in him above all else.

Liam Docherty:

I became a Christian 4 years ago at an Easter Camp. I am very thankful to God for all He's done for me and I believe baptism is the next step for me to publicly show that I believe in Jesus and want to serve Him.

Matthew Wilson:

Hi, I'm Matt. My wife and I have recently moved home to the South Island after 3 years living in New Plymouth. I was privileged to be born and raised in a Christian home in Balfour and as a teenager made the decision to follow Jesus. I'm choosing to be baptised to make a public declaration of my life in Christ.

Infoodle

East Taieri is now using a new church database called Infoodle which enables us to manage information with ease. However, it is important for us to have accurate information to ensure that the details we have for each person within our congregations is correct and up to date. This will enable us to communicate effectively and streamline processes each year including tax receipts. The information on Infoodle is confidential and is not available for everyone to view. A form will be coming out in the next week with your tax receipts, in the bulletin and will be available on the website (www.etchurch.co.nz). We would really appreciate you taking a minute or two to fill in this form when you receive it and returning it to the East Taieri office as soon as you are able.
