

Baptism Service—Sunday 12 November 7pm

Ethan McKinlay

I have decided to be baptised because I have felt God calling me for a while now. Recently I experienced God speak through me to someone and through this I saw God move in their life. Since then I have been inviting friends to church. Seeing them come to church and enjoy it has made me want to 'go all in for Jesus' so He can work through me more.

Ollie McFelin

I want to be baptised because the Lord has changed my life, and to show people that I do believe and I'm not ashamed to love and follow Him.

Alexi Dalton

I am getting baptized this Sunday evening because all my tears and fear I have been going through the last few years have pulled me a lot closer to Christ, and the idea of being baptized has just brought light to my hard times.

Saddle Hill Foundation Trust

2024 is going to see some changes in SHFT as Larissa Pearce and Ryan Roxburgh move on from their roles at SHFT into new opportunities that God has for them. We are very sorry to see them go but we know that God is going before them and will guide every step of their way. SHFT will be advertising in the near future.
